

Atascosa County Livestock Show, Inc.

Constitution and By-Laws

Revised 2020

Article 1 - Name

This organization shall be known as the Atascosa County Livestock Show, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "Organization".

Article II - Objective

Section 1. The objective of the Organization shall be to organize and hold a county livestock show for the purpose of promoting the educational program of students engaged in FFA and 4-H agricultural livestock projects.

Section 2. To achieve this objective, the Organization will provide a livestock show and agricultural mechanics project show with financial assistance from citizens and business firms of Atascosa County and cities in the counties trade area.

Article III - Organization

The Organization is a countywide non-profit organization controlled by a Board of Directors, operating under the 501©3 of the Internal Revenue Code. (1999)

Article IV- Membership

Section 1. Eligibility. Any person sincerely interested in active participation to affect the objectives of this Organization may apply to become a member.

Section 2. Classes. There shall be the following classes of membership:

- A. Regular Members. All current directors must attend at least 50% of the regular meetings (minimum of five) to be qualified to vote on any motion or business. (2011)
- B. New Members. New members that are brought in during the middle of the year must attend a minimum of three meetings to be eligible to vote on any motion or business. (2012)
- C. Honorary Members. Any person may be elected as an honorary member by the unanimous vote of all director's present at any duly held meeting of the Board of Directors but shall have no fights, duties, or obligations in the management of or in the property of the Organization.
- D. Members. As used hereinafter, the word "Member" shall mean regular member unless otherwise stated.

Article V-Meetings

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the members of the organization shall be held in April at the regularly scheduled meeting, unless otherwise notified (1999), for the purpose of receiving reports, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting as appearing on the agenda. (1999)

Section 2. Notice of Meeting. Notice of each annual meeting of the members shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to each member at his last recorded address at least seven days in advance thereof setting forth the place, time, and purpose of the meeting; or in lieu thereof, notice may be given in such form as may be authorized by the directors (1999), from time to time, at a regularly convened meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the Board of Directors or by the Secretary or President at their discretion. Upon the written request of ten members, the president shall call a special meeting to consider a specific subject. No business other than that specified in the notice of the meeting shall be transacted at any special meeting of the members.

Section 4. All regular scheduled meetings of the Atascosa County Livestock Show, Inc., are open to the general public, excluding all executive sessions. (1999)

Section 5. Board Meeting Public Participation (2018)

- A. Limit on Participation. Audience participation at a board meeting is limited to the public comment portion of the meeting designated for that purpose. At all other times during a Board meeting the audience shall not enter into discussion or debate on matters being considered by the Board, unless requested by the presiding officer.
- B. Public Comment. At regular meetings the Board shall allot an amount of time to hear persons who desire to make comments to the Board. Person who wish to participate in this portion of the meeting shall sign up with the presiding officer or designee before the meeting begins and shall indicate the topic about which they wish to speak. No presentation shall exceed five minutes. Delegations of two or more shall appoint one person to present their view before the Board.
- C. Complainants and Concerns. The presiding officer or designee shall determine whether a person addressing the Board has attempted to solve a matter administratively through resolution channels established by policy. If not, the person shall be referred to the appropriate policy (ACLS Constitution & Bylaws) to seek resolution.
- D. Disruption. The Board shall not tolerate disruption of the meeting by members of the audience. If after at least one warning from the presiding officer, any person continues to disrupt the meeting by his or her words or actions, the presiding officer may request assistance from law enforcement officials to have the person removed from the meeting.

Section 6. Rules of Order. Roberts Rules of Order shall govern the proceeding of all meetings, except where same conflicts with the constitution or by-laws of the Organization. (1999)

Article VI- Board of Directors

Section 1. Board of Directors. The management of the property and affairs of the organization shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The directors shall, upon election, immediately enter upon the performance of their duties and shall continue in office until their successors have been duly elected by the Board of Directors. (1999)

Section 2. Required Members. The Board of directors shall consist of four members from each Independent School district in Atascosa County, Somerset Independent School District, and one member each from the communities of Fashing, Leming-Verdi, Black Hill, Christine, Campbellton, and County Agents and Agricultural Science Teachers. Directors will be nominated by the Agricultural Teachers and County Agents and voted on by the Board of Directors. If no one has an interest in serving as a Director from named school districts or communities another person from another school district/community, with an interest in the organization, may be nominated by the Agriculture Teachers and County Agent to serve that area/community. (2016) Newly elected directors will assume their duties at the next scheduled meeting. (1999) If a director has been on the board for 30 years or more, he/she may be given the status of director Emeritus and still have voting privileges. (2017) Once voted on and approved by the board of directors, he/she will retain voting privileges, but will serve under the status of Director Emeritus and not be under an affiliated school/community. The school/community that has a Director Emeritus will then have the opportunity to select a new director to fill that void. (2018)

Section 3. Special Members. The past presidents of the Organization may be appointed a permanent member of the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting. (2011)

Section 4. Quorum. The presence of 12 of the members of the Board of Directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

Section 5. Vacancies. If any vacancy occurs in the Board of Directors by death, resignation, or otherwise, it may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for the purpose.

Section 6. Meeting and Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be immediately following the annual election and on such days thereafter as shall be determined by the Board of directors. The President or Recording Secretary shall, at the request in writing of five directors, issue a call for a special meeting of the Board of Directors. Notice of each meeting shall be given to each director either by mail at least five days before the time appointed for the meeting to the last recorded address of each director, or by telephone or telegraphic or personal notice twenty-four hours preceding the meeting. In case of special meetings, such notice shall include the purpose of the meeting and only those matters so stated may be acted upon at the meeting.

Section 7. Duties and Powers. The Board of Directors shall have the power to appoint such committees, as it shall determine and to delegate to them as the Board shall deem advisable and which it may properly delegate. The Board of Directors may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its meetings and the management of the Organization, as it may deem proper.

Article VII- Executive Committee

Section 1. The President (2011) may appoint an Executive Committee, which shall consist of not less than three directors, one of which shall be the President of the Organization. The Executive Committee shall be comprised of no more than one director from any one entity. (2019)

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall advise with and assist the officers of the Organization in all matters concerning its interests and the management of its affairs, and shall have such other powers as may be delegated to it by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. At any meeting of the Executive Committee a majority of the total number of members in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Committee.

Article VIII- Officers, Duties, and Powers

Section 1. Officers. The Officers (1999) of the Organization shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, and Executive Secretary/Treasurer, all of whom shall hold office for the ensuing year which shall begin May 1st or until their successors are duly elected by the Board of Directors, with the exception of the Executive Secretary/Treasurer, whom may be appointed from the general public. (1999)

Section 2. President. The President shall be responsible for conducting the affairs of the Organization and for executing the policies established by the Board of Directors. He shall present a report of the condition of the Organization at the annual meeting, and, at such other times as he or the directors shall deem appropriate, he shall communicate to the Board of Directors of such matters and make such suggestions as may, in his opinion, tend to promote the welfare of the Organization.

He shall preside at all meetings of the members, Board of Directors, and Executive Committee.

The President, or such other officers as he may designate in writing, shall have power to make and execute for and in the name of the organization, such contracts and leases as may have received prior approval of the board.

He shall preside at all meetings of the members, Board of Directors, and Executive Committee.

The President, or such other officers as he may designate in writing, shall have power to make and execute for and in the name of the organization, such contracts and leases as may have received prior approval of the board.

He shall investigate complaints, irregularities and conditions detrimental to the Organization and report them to the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee as circumstances warrant.

He shall prepare an agenda prior to each meeting and those items not listed should be discussed following agenda items if time permits.

Section 3. Vice-President. In case of the absence or disability of the President and provided he is authorized by the President or Board of Directors so to act, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of that office, and shall have such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or by the President.

Section 4. Recording Secretary. The Recording Secretary shall be responsible for recording the activities of the Organization and maintaining appropriate files, mailing lists and necessary records. He shall perform such duties as are herein specifically set forth, in addition to such other duties as are customarily incident to the office of Recording Secretary or as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or President. He shall maintain a list of all regular and honorary members, directors, and committee members and give notice of all meetings of the Organization, the Board of Directors, and committees. He shall keep the minutes of the meeting of the members, the Board of Directors, Executive Committee, special committees, and cause them to be recorded in a book kept for that purpose. He shall conduct all correspondence not otherwise specifically delegated in connection with said meetings and shall be responsible for carrying out all orders, votes, and resolutions not otherwise committed. He shall determine eligible voters from each community when taking roll call.

Section 5. Executive Secretary/Treasurer. The Executive Secretary/Treasurer shall perform such duties as are herein specifically set forth and such other duties as are customarily incident to the office of Executive Secretary/Treasurer or may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors. He shall receive all monies and securities, and deposit same in a depository approved by the Board of Directors. He shall keep records for the receipts and disbursements of all monies and securities of the Organization.

Article IX- Financial and Accounting

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall decide all matters pertaining to the finances of the Organization and it shall place all income in a common treasury, directing the expenditure of same. All checks, excluding all stock show checks (1999), over the amount of $1000 will require two signatures, one from the Executive Secretary/Treasurer and one from any other officer (1999). The Facility Manager shall be on the signature card of the bank account and be able to purchase goods and services for less than $1,000 related to upkeep and rental of the Atascosa County Show barn and grounds. (2014)

Section 2. No director, officer, or member of the Organization, with the exception of the Executive Secretary/Treasurer (fee will be determined by the Board of Directors), shall receive, directly or indirectly, any salary, compensation, or emolument, from the Organization for services rendered as director, officer, or member. In the event the Facilities Manager is a director, officer, or member, that person may receive salary, compensation, or emolument. (Fee determined by the Board of Directors (2004)).

Section 3. All monies received shall be deposited to the credit of the Organization in a depository approved by the Board of Directors and all disbursements shall be made by check. All checks shall be signed by the Executive Secretary/Treasurer.

Section 4. The fiscal year of the Organization shall begin on the first day of May and shall end on the last day of April, at which time an audit of the Organization's books shall be required.

Section 5. Distribution of property upon dissolution. Upon dissolution of the Organization and after all outstanding debts and claims have been satisfied, the members shall distribute the property of the organization to the Atascosa County 4-H Clubs (Current clubs – ACEE 4-H Black Hill 4-H, La Partia 4-H, Leming/Verdi 4-H, Lytle 4-H, Mesquite 4-H and Poteet 4-H) (2017) and the Atascosa County FFA Chapters (Jourdanton FFA, Pleasanton FFA, Poteet FFA, Charlotte FFA, Lytle FFA, and to include Somerset FFA) (1999) maintaining an objective similar to that set forth herein, which are, or may be entitled to exemption under Section 501©3 of the Internal Revenue Code or any future corresponding provision.

Article X- Amendments

In order to amend the Constitution and By-laws, a written copy of the proposed amendment must be placed in the hands of all directors at least two weeks prior to the date of the next meeting of all directors at which time the amendment is to be voted on. It will be the duty of the directors of each community to see that members in his community are familiar with the amendment. A majority of the member's present will be necessary to amend the Constitution and By-laws. This action may be done at the annual meeting or at a special meeting.

Article XI- Adoption

The approval by a majority of the directors of the Organization present at a meeting of the directors shall be necessary for the adoption of this Constitution and Bylaws.

Article XII- General Rules and Regulations

Section 1. The Organization reserves to its President and Executive Committee the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto, its judgment may determine. An exhibitor who violates any of the rules and regulations of the show will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalty as the Executive Committee may order.

Section 2. All exhibits will be under the control and the direction of the General Show Superintendent, to be appointed annually by the directors. The Organization will in no case be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury, or damage done to or occasioned by, or arising out of, or in any way connected with such exhibitors or any of the animals.

Section 3. All applications and entries, including Rabbits and Commercial Heifer Pens, (2017) shall be made online (2011) and accompanied by a pen or stall fee of $30.00 (2018), to the Executive Secretary/Treasurer (2011) on or before the scheduled date for the November meeting. Rabbits will be entered at the time of validation (1995). Late entries will be accepted until December 20th at double entry fee (2001). After December 20th, and Entry fee of $200.00 will be accepted one hour prior to weigh in of the species (2013). A receipt will be issued for the late entry payment by the livestock office prior to weigh in along with a weight/entry card. (2014) No other Livestock allowed on ACLS grounds (2006).

Section 4. Animals must be shown when and in such manner as the judge may require, and if the exhibitor refuses to submit to the requirements, their animals will be ruled out.

Section 5. The single judge system is the policy of the show, and in every case, the judge is selected with utmost care. Judges will be selected at the January meeting (2005). A judge/classifier and one alternate will be elected in separate elections. In the event that the elected judge is unable to attend, the alternate will be contacted. If the alternate cannot attend, another election will be held at the next regular meeting. (2006)

Section 6. The decision of the judges and classifiers (2020) shall be final in all cases, except where mistakes, fraud, misrepresentation, or collusion, not discovered at the time of the award, is proven. In such cases, the appeal may be taken to the Executive Committee for their decision. There can be no appeal to this decision.

Section 7. Protest. All protests must be in writing to the Livestock Office (2020) and accompanied by a deposit of $100.00, (2004) which will be refunded if the protest is sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal, giving good and sufficient reasons therefore, and must be delivered to the Livestock Office immediately upon the occasion for such protest. These cases are referred to the Show Superintendents, Division Superintendents, President and Executive Committee, who will have full power to act, and from whose decision there can be no appeal. Judging/Classifying procedures will not be interrupted for protest investigation. (2020)

Section 8. If any exhibitor or parent (2020) whether in person or by agent, or servant interferes with the judges during their adjudication, or shows any disrespect to them or to the show, the Executive Committee may demand a proper apology from such exhibitor or it may exclude him from competition and from the ring and may also withhold such premiums that may have been awarded.

Section 9. Should an animal awarded a prize be disqualified, animals gaining lower prizes shall graduate up into higher positions next in order above them.

Section 10. Placings will be designated by ribbons. (2006)

Section 11. Exhibitors will be limited to show no more than two animals in any one class. (2006)

Section 12. Ownership and Feeding Period. The exhibitors must own their animals at the beginning of, and throughout the feeding period, and must feed and care for and exhibit their animals. During the Fitting period, exhibitor's animals must be kept at a facility approved by the supervising Ag Science Teacher or County Agent. (2007) The feeding and fitting period shall begin no later than the state steer validation date for steers and November 1, for market lambs, and November 15 for market swine (2001). Market rabbits must have been owned, fed and fitted by exhibitor no later than the rabbit validation date (2004). No feeding or fitting date shall be established for breeding cattle except that they shall have been owned by the exhibitor no less than 60 days prior to the opening date of the show. (2011) All breeding swine must be owned on prior to December 1st (2011)

Section 13. All entries in the livestock show must be shown by their owner. Exhibitor substitutions may be allowed if the exhibitor has more than one entry in a class or the exhibitor has entries in more than one Department showing at the same time. Exhibitor substitutions may also be allowed in the case of sickness or other school activities. Substitutions should be requested by the AST/CEA, parent, or Adult Leader and receive the approval of the Show Superintendent. The substitute exhibitor must be a member of an Atascosa County FFA chapter or 4-H club. In the event that a substitute exhibitor is used, the substitute exhibitor will show the entry until the conclusion of the judging of the class. In case of an emergency, the Show Superintendent or Department Superintendent may use his or her own discretion as to whether a substitute showman will be allowed (2006).

Section 14. If a Premium Sale buyer does not make payment to the Atascosa County Livestock Show, the ACLS will issue the exhibitors' check minus the amount of money bid by the buyer in default. The Organization will make every attempt to collect the funds from any buyer that does not honor his/her obligations, but will in no way be responsible for the shortage caused by buyer default. At such time that any past due funds are collected, a check will be issued to the exhibitor for the amount bid on his exhibit by the buyer in default, less the commission (2006).

Section 15. All awards will be made on the basis of the placing of animals.

Section 16. All animals will be numbered and numbers must be conspicuously displayed with his or her animal. The exhibitor must remain with his or her animal until it is numbered, weighed, penned, judged, and sold.

Section 17. Animals will be placed and sold according to the following:

- Steers – 65% of animals in each class will place and sell - minimum of 2 per class. (2017)
- Swine, Sheep and Goats – 65% of animals in each class will place and sell - minimum of 2 per class. (2017)
- Turkeys, Broilers and Rabbits – 45% of animals in each class will place and sell - minimum of 2 per class. (2017)
- Breeding animals - 50% of the number in each class will receive a ribbon.
- Normal rules of rounding apply. (.49 or less round down; .5 and greater – round up) (2016)
- Placings will be determined based on the Official Class Posting sheets. (2017)

Section 18. An exhibitor showing an exhibit in the market division may sell only one exhibit through the premium sale. During the sale, exhibitors will be called a maximum of three times for the sale line up and if he or she is not in line, he or she will automatically forfeit their right to sell. A sale sheet will be posted on the bulletin board on Saturday morning.

Section 19. A commission of six (2013) percent will be charged on all sales. The commission is paid to the Atascosa County Livestock Show and is used for the general operation of the Show.

Section 20. (2018) To be eligible to participate in the Atascosa County Livestock Show, exhibitors must be a member in good standing of their respective FFA chapter or 4-H club in Atascosa County AND meet one of the following:

1. Must attend school in Charlotte, Jourdanton, Lytle, Pleasanton, Poteet or Somerset Independent School District.
2. Be home schooled or attend a private school in Atascosa County and permanently reside in Atascosa County.
3. Have one parent who permanently resides in Atascosa County, provided the animals are kept and fed in Atascosa County.

Exception – Any exhibitor who participated in the Atascosa County Livestock Show in 2018 and does not meet the above criteria will be allowed to participate until the graduate from high school or fail to enter and show in ACLS in any one year.

Section 21. Unethical Fitting and Showing of Livestock. The showing of unethically fitted livestock, or livestock over the age that is eligible for exhibition in the class in which such animal is being presented for exhibition at the County Livestock Show is prohibited. Unethical fitting within the meaning of the rules will be deemed to consist of any method of altering the natural conformation of any part of the animals' body, evidenced by the presence of abnormal tissue or foreign substance. Every exhibitor, in consideration of his entry being accepted by the Atascosa County Livestock Show, Inc., specifically represents that no animal entered therein by him as his exhibit is unethically fitted or altered. Absolutely no drenching of sheep or goats inside the show barn. Any and all filling of sheep or goats must be made in the pens. An automatic disqualification from the show if violated. (2009) No force-feeding or watering of swine by means of hose or any other device which is unnatural for swine to consume feed and/or water. The exhibitor and animal will be disqualified from the show if violated. (2016) The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors is hereby authorized in the event any such animal is declared to be unethically fitted as foresaid to permanently bar such animals from competition in the show and may bar the exhibitor entering such animal. Reinstatement of anyone so barred may be made only by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Section 22. Exhibitors Staying on the Show Grounds. No exhibitors will be allowed to stay on the grounds at night. (2004)

Section 23. Double Entry of Exhibits. An exhibitor who wishes to double enter his or her animal in both market and breeding classes may do so by paying entry fees on both entries. (2006)

Section 24. Unruly animals. Any animal being unruly will be sifted. A committee of three people consisting of the President, Department Superintendent, and General Superintendent will be the sifting committee.

Section 25. Entry regulations. All exhibitors may enter up to 4 animals per species except rabbits will be limited to 2 per species (2020) at the Atascosa County Livestock Show. There will be no entry limit on Breeding animals, or Ag Mechanic projects. (2020) Entering any other county Livestock Show shall constitute automatic disqualification from the Atascosa County Livestock Show (1998). This rule does pertain to Ag Mechanics Projects. (2017) This rule does not pertain to judging contest (2000).

Section 26. Add On's will be accepted during the Premium Auction only. A separate area outside the buyer's reception area will be set up for individuals to add money onto an exhibitor's sale lot. All Add On's must be done the night of the Premium Auction. If you are a Non-Registered Buyer ALL Add On money must be paid for that night (2020) by check or cash only, no credit cards will be accepted. Registered Buyers will be billed along with Consortium Sheet Bids. (2020) All Add On's are subject to the 6% commission charged on all sale lots. The area for Add On's will close 15 minutes after the last sale lot sells. No exceptions! Add on money will be published in any way, nor will the individuals placing the Add On's have any recognition. This is a convenience to the grandparents, family members, friends etc. that are not registered buyers. (2017)

Section 27. Propane heaters, electric heaters or heat lamps will not be allowed around or in the pens where animals are penned. During inclement weather the species Superintendent, at their discretion, may allow a heat source in the vicinity if the weigh-in area for the comfort of the volunteers who are assisting. (2018) There will be no cooking or preparation of food that requires cooking or heat produced by a fire or electricity other than by the ACLS Concession Stand (2005). The ACLS Board of Directors reserves the right to cook and/or prepare food with the use of fire and/or electricity, or have a designated party do so for the stock show volunteers and ring/stage assistance during the show. (2019)

Section 28. Only exhibitors, Atascosa County Ag Science Teachers, County Agents, or family members (Parents, grandparents, and siblings) are allowed to prepare animals for show at the Atascosa County Livestock Show in all divisions (2005).

Section 29. Photographs: Exhibitors agree to present their project(s) at the request of show officials for official photographs. All photographs taken by the official photographer(s) become property of the Atascosa County Livestock Show. Photos that are taken by official show photographer(s) can be used at the discretion of the show for print in advertising and promotion of our livestock show and the youth we represent (2013). All sale lots will be charged a photography fee based on the rates the photographer is charging for the upcoming year. The fee will be deducted from each exhibitor's premium check. (2017)

Section 30. Exhibition of Animals During Sale: Exhibitors selling Grand and Reserve Champion animals must bring an animal into the sale ring during the auction. All such animals are subject to being prohibited from entering the sale ring or removed from the sale ring at the first indication of unruly or ill behavior that, in the direction of the sale ring attending director, could present a danger to itself, the exhibitor, other exhibitors or any person attending the sale. No animals placing lower than Grand Champion (2017) or Reserve Grand (2017) Champion will be permitted in the sale ring during the auction. (2016)

Section 31. Pets/Service Animals: No "Pets" allowed on show grounds, with the exception of a service animal defined as any guide dog, or other animal individually trained to provide assistance to an individual with a disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If an animal does not meet the guidelines of a service animal outlined by the ADA, then the owner will be asked to remove the animal from show grounds immediately. (2018)

Section 32. Code of Ethics: Any exhibitor that does not abide by the FFA/4-H Code of Ethics, i.e. defacing ACLS property, acting in a disrespectful manner towards directors, community members, advisors, or other exhibitors, or any other behavior deemed unacceptable by the Executive Committee will be subject to the consequences deemed appropriate by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee reserves the right to remove the exhibitor from the show/sale by a majority vote. (2019)

Section 33. Stock show Cancellation: Due to any reason such as Covid 19 or any other occurrence that City, State or Federal authorities shut down public gatherings. We the ACLS nor its Directors will be held liable for not having an annual Stock Show. Just because animals or projects are entered to show does not guarantee a Show. In the event this should occur all entry monies will be returned. (2020)

Article XIII- Special Rules and Regulations

All rules contained in this Article XIII shall be defined as Special Rules and Regulations, and are established to govern the operation of the Atascosa County Livestock Show. Proposed amendments to the Special Rules and Regulations must be submitted to the Recording Secretary in writing prior to or at the March Meeting. The Recording Secretary shall publish all proposed amendments to the directors at least two weeks prior to the April meeting. Proposed amendments to the Special Rules and Regulations shall be considered only at the April meeting, may be debated, amended, and shall require a majority vote of the directors eligible to vote in order to pass. Once an amendment receives the necessary affirmative votes, the Recording Secretary shall review and correct any clerical or typographical errors before the amendment is inserted in this article. (2011)

Due to the current pandemic situation the 2020 amendments (rule changes) may be made at the next regular meeting. (2020 only)

Rule 1. Eligibility of Exhibitors. Junior Exhibitors and contestants under Texas Education Code 33.081 "No Pass, No Play" are ineligible to participate in any Atascosa County Livestock Show Activity, Event, or Competition. Any animal owned by an ineligible exhibitor is also ineligible for competition and or premium sale. (2008)

All 4-H and FFA exhibitors are considered to be eligible by the Atascosa County Livestock Show to participate in the show at the time entries are received by the CEA/AST. Any CEA/AST who has member in his/her program who becomes ineligible to participate in the Livestock Show according to the show Superintendent of the Livestock Show at least 24 hours prior to the beginning of the competition, the Atascosa County Livestock show will consider the exhibitor as not eligible to participate.

Rule 2. Qualifications. Any individual who will be 9 years old or in the 3rd grade prior to the beginning of the fitting period and who will not be 21 years old before February 1, is eligible to enter exhibits fed and cared for by the individual. Exhibitor must be under the supervision of competent leadership for the feeding period and shall not have graduated from high school.

Rule 3. Certification of Eligibility. All entries in the show should be made by the Agricultural Science Teacher or County Agent under whose supervision the animal was fed and he/she must certify on the entry application that the animal and exhibitor are eligible under the rules of the show.

Rule 4. Weigh-in. Designated official scales will be used for the official weigh-in and will be controlled by the show superintendent until start of official weigh-in. All market steers, lambs, swine, goats and rabbits; will be weighed in under the supervision of the department superintendent (2011). One reweigh will be allowed should any animal weigh less than the minimum or more than the maximum allowed weight for its species. The exhibitor may reweigh that animal one time at the end of the weighing of that species. Further, the superintendent may choose to reweigh any animal one time for any reason (2011). Once an animal enters the scale, that animal is declared for show and may not be replaced or substituted for, with any other animal; at any time (2013). Those animals that do not meet weight requirement will be automatically sifted. All species (lambs, swine, steers, turkeys, rabbits, broilers, goats) will use validation number as official numbers (2004).

Rule 5. Eligible for premium sale. All market exhibits that place will be eligible for the premium sale. An exhibitor may sell only one exhibit through the premium sale. It will be the responsibility of the exhibitors to inform their Adult Leaders, County Extension Agent, or Agricultural Science Teachers, which place they wish to sell if they have placed more than one place in the livestock show. This information should be furnished immediately after the conclusion of the last market class of the day on the Friday of the show. If this information is not furnished, the Adult Leader, County Extension Agent, or Agricultural Science Teacher will choose which of the exhibitors' place sells through the premium sale. (2006)

Rule 6. Grand Champion. All grand champion market animals must sell through the premium sale unless an exhibitor has more than one grand champion. In the event one exhibitor has more than one grand champion, the following will be followed in selecting which entry will sell.

1. Grand Champion Steer
2. Grand Champion Swine
3. Grand Champion Lamb
4. Grand Champion Broilers
5. Grand Champion Turkeys
6. Grand Champion Rabbits
7. Grand Champion Goat

Rule 7. Arrival of Animals. All market animals must be in place prior to their official weigh-in time as designated by the show superintendents in the official ACLS show schedule (2000). No animals may stay on trailers or etc. They must be in the facilities provided by the ACLS. No Exceptions. Failure to comply will result in disqualification. (2006)

Rule 15. Validation. All animals that show in the Atascosa County Livestock Show must be validated in Atascosa County. The only exception to this rule would be in the event a student moves into the county after the validation date (1997).

Rule 16. Cattle Department. Classes and Premium List.

- A. Age of Animal. Steers do not have to have their milk teeth.
- B. Validation. Steers must be validated during the state steer validation period and carry the state validation ear tag. Steers that show in the Atascosa County Livestock Show must be validated in Atascosa County unless a student moves into the County after the validation date (1997). All tags removed upon validation of steer, and only the validation tag shall be present during the show. All others tags must be removed. (2017)
- C. Entry Fee. An Entry fee of $20.00 (2007) will be charged for all cattle (beef breeding heifers and steers). Entry fee must accompany all entry cards.
- D. Alcoholic Beverages. No Beer will be allowed on the Show Grounds for the purpose of giving to calves in order to put fill on them. No pumping of steers allowed. (2006)
- E. Steer Classification. All steers will be classified by the one-person classifier at the time of weigh-in. All steers will be weighed by breeds. The order will follow the show order. Steers not present at the time of weigh-in for a particular breed will automatically be classified as Exotic (2004). The classifier will be hired by the Atascosa County Livestock Show for the sole purpose of classifying steers. All decisions of the classifier are final, with no exceptions (1998). All exhibitors must lead their steer at the time of weigh-in with the exceptions noted in ARTICLE XII- Section 13. (2004).
- F. Steer Breeds. Steer classes will be established within the following breeds:
 - 1. British.
 - 2. Charolais and Charolais Cross (at least 50% Charolais).
 - 3. Brahman and Brahman Cross (at least 50% Brahman).
 - 4. ABC - to exhibit at least 3/8 Brahman influence and including Santa Gertrudis Cross (at least 50% Santa Gertrudis).
 - 5. Exotic
- G. Steer Weights and Classes. Steers must weigh a minimum of 900 pounds. After weighing, those steers meeting minimum weight will be divided equally into a light and heavy class in each breed, provided there are 5 animals per breed. If a breed has more than 18 (2020) animals, the classes will be divided into light, medium, and heavy weights. No more than 9 animals per class, if there are more than 9 animals per class, 4 classes will be created. An additional class will be added as needed each time the number of any class exceeds 9. (2016)
- H. Grooming Materials. Steers will have no change of the major color pattern of the animal by painting or dyeing. Any grooming material, except hoof dressing, that allows color to come off from any animal will not be allowed to show. All steers must be dehorned except in the breeds where scurs are acceptable for breed classification (2000).
- I. Breeding Classes. Classes will be established for the following breeds:
 - 1. British (Angus, Hereford, and Shorthorn).
 - 2. European
 - 3. American (1997)

These animals must be purebred with the registration papers or certification (AOB, ABC, Star Five, Black Gold, Etc.) papers from the parent breed association or certified by the TCCA and have official TCCA, AOB, or ABC ear tag and certificate number in the name of the exhibitor at the time of the show. (2011)

- J. All steers will be slick shorn to conform to major show guidelines. (Hair no more than one quarter inch in length over the entire body. Executive Committee interpretation as per instructions from the Board of Directors (1996)). Prior to weigh, classification and registration paper check in, all breeder identification ear tags need to be removed from the market steer and breeding heifers ear. TJLA ear tags will be allowed in heifers. Only state steer validation tags will be allowed in steers. (2017)
- K. Spring Junior Heifers - Calved on or after 04/01 of the year preceding the show. (2006)

Rule 17. Swine Department. Classes and Premium List.

- A. Market Swine. Classes will be established for the following breeds:
1. Dark Other Pure Breed. (Dark OPB: Berk, Spot, Poland China, Hereford, Tamworth, and any purebred with hair and/or pigment other than white.) (2018) (Revised 2019)
 2. Duroc.
 3. Hampshire.
 4. Light Other Pure Breeds. (Light OPB: Chester and Landrace. White hair and white pigment.) (2018)
 5. Yorkshire.
 6. Crossbred.

Market swine must weigh 190-280 pounds (2013) with a three-pound tolerance at each end (187-283) (2011). Weight Limits will be strictly enforced (1998). Gilts may be shown in the market class. After all swine are weighed, those weighing within the above weight limits will be divided equally into a light, medium and heavy weight class within each breed. If there are more than 75 in a breed, classes will be split into light, medium, light heavy and heavy weight. If there are more than 100 in a breed, classes will be split into light, light medium, medium (2020) light heavy and heavy weight. An additional class will be added as needed each time the number in any once class exceeds 25. (2013)

- B. Breeding Swine. Gilts may be entered and exhibited in both the market and breeding swine classes. The breeding gilts must have registration of ownership by December 1. Only purebred Berkshire, Chester White, Hampshire, Duroc, Landrace, Poland China, Spotted Poland China, and Yorkshire, Tamworth and Hereford, or any other breed registered in a recognized breed association, (2013) will be allowed. Registration papers will be checked after time of weigh in for the market show (2011). After all registration papers are checked, eligible animals will be divided equally into three classes by age. If there are more than 75 breeding gilts, 4 classes will be created. An additional class will be added as needed each time the number in any one class exceeds 25. (2013)

Class 1- the youngest gilts farrowed through Sept 15th of the preceding year.

Class 2- gilts not included in class 1 or 3.

Class 3- the oldest gilts farrowed beginning July 1st of the proceeding year (2013)

- C. Entry Fee. An entry fee of $20.00 (2007) per head will be charged on all swine. Entry fee must accompany entry card.
- D. Grooming Materials. Swine must be classified, weighed and be (2017) shown “free of product”.
- E. Validation. All market swine must be validated on or before November 15th. Market swine must be properly tagged and ear notched. Proper ear notches must be recorded on the validation form. If a mistake in recording ear notches occurs, corrections must be made in writing to the validation chairman prior to January 1st (2011). If the ear notches on a market swine (during weigh-in) do not match those that were recorded, that animal may be disqualified from being shown. The Show Superintendent, the Swine Superintendent, and the Validation Chairman will make the final decision on the eligibility of those animals with ear notch discrepancies (2003). Market swine that show in the Atascosa County Livestock Show must be validated in Atascosa County unless a student moves into the County after the validation date (1997).
- F. Breeds of swine will be declared at time of weigh-in (1999).

- G. Swine Classification- classification of swine will take place at the time of weigh in. ACLS shall provide a classifier, not to be the swine judge, to perform the classification procedure. Any animal not exhibiting the appropriate characteristics for the breed, as determined by the classifier, shall be moved to the cross class. *All decisions of the classifier are final with no exceptions. Rule 19. Poultry Department. Classes and Premium List

- A. Entry Fee and Validation. An entry fee of $20.00 (2007) will be charged for poultry entries. All fees accompany entries and validation cards must be turned in the same day.
- B. Broilers. An entry will consist of one pen of three birds. Exhibitors must order birds in multiples of 25. Each exhibitor will be allowed to enter two pens of broilers in the Atascosa County Livestock Show. Multiple immediate family members exhibiting broilers must order a minimum of 25 birds per family exhibitor (example, brother and sister - 50 birds) (2003). All broilers will be purchased through the ACLS, straight run or same as San Antonio Livestock Show (2001) and will be wing banded. Broilers losing their bands will not show. Age of broilers to be determined by poultry committee (2000).
- C. Turkeys. Must be purchased from the San Antonio (2000) Show Turkey source. The turkeys may be ordered by the Ag Science Teacher or County Agent only and must be picked up by that person. The turkeys will be wing banded at hatching and that band assigned to the exhibitor must be in place and untampered with to be eligible to show. The Grand Champion Turkey will be selected from the class winners of Class 2 (Turkey Hen) and Class 3 (Turkey Tom). The Reserve Champion Turkey will be selected from the other class winner and the 2na Place from the class in which the Grand Champion Turkey was selected (2005).
- D. Check-in. No wet birds will be allowed to check in at time of poultry sift (1998).
- E. Sifting. There will be no weigh-in or minimum weights on poultry. Birds will continue to be sifted for bruises, broken bones, missing wing bands, external parasites, and sex characteristics (1998).
